Title: The Lycaeum

Author:
-----

The Lycaeum resides
north of the magical city of Moonglow. One can walk or ride to the central college of Moonglow or one can take the easier route by using the teleportation runes found within the city itself.

Scholars world wide have frequented the halls of hte Lycaeum at one point or another in their careers. Many have contributed to the works found within and have obtained a state of immortality as their names live on forever in the dusty tomes and crumbling pages dwelling there.

Where the Lycaeum is a font of lore for all to browse through at one point in time, the Scholomance is the darker version of the Lycaeum, containing dark knowledge
found nowhere else.
